

Milton Abbot School

Everyone has a duty to safeguard children and protect them from harm.

The Designated Safeguarding Officer is:

Chris Luxford (Headteacher/Inclusion Lead)

This role also leads on Domestic Violence and Child Exploitation, as well as completing regular scrutiny and reviews of our safeguarding systems, reporting to School Governors.

The Deputy Safeguarding Officer is:

Jane Weatherston

Jane is an experienced teacher across the Primary Age range, and is an expert in Child Development. She is also our Key Stage 1 Phase Leader, Early Years Leader and Staff Governor.

The Safeguarding Lead Governor is:

Miles Smith – contact: admin@miltonabbot.devon.sch.uk

Having been a Primary School teacher and safeguarding lead for a number of years, Miles is now a lecturer at Plymouth Marjon. Bringing such experience allows him to support and challenge our school systems, linking in regularly with the Safeguarding Lead.

Please report any safeguarding concerns to the above immediately. We work closely with other agencies when monitoring or sharing safeguarding concerns. If above are not available please phone Early Help/MASH with any concerns on 0345 155 1071 or via their e-mail: mashsecure@devon.gcsx.gov.uk

Milton Abbot School

Everyone has a duty to safeguard children and protect them from harm.

Our Inclusion Lead is:

Mr. Chris Luxford (Headteacher)

Mr. Luxford is a highly-experienced teacher and passionate about Special Needs Education, and is Thrive trained. He leads on supporting, nurturing, challenging and championing any vulnerable pupil, including the following groups:

- Special Educational Needs and disabilities
- Disadvantaged pupils who receive the Pupil Premium grant
- Children in Care
- Children with social, emotional and communication needs
- Monitoring attendance for all these groups